Committee News

Bonfire Party

Sunday 8th November at 4.30 and try Tony's famous pumpkin soup! No fireworks at this event.

All FHS members welcome.
Please let June Brookes know if you are coming so that we know numbers for catering.

Christmas Social

Sunday 13th
December

11.00am until 1.00pm
Gordon Road Allotments
Mince pies and mulled wine.
All FHS members welcome

Trading Hut

The trading hut will close for the winter on 11th October and will reopen again in the spring.
Purchases can still be made in the winter by special request to June.

New Tea Hut

Kind neighbours in Gordon Road have offered FHS a large, free garden shed! The shed will replace the current tea hut on the piggery which is falling down and much too small for the events that we hold.
This will be a fantastic improvement in our facilities. Philip Cuttell will shortly be emailing members to set up a working party to assemble the shed on site.

Well done everyone!

Thank you to everyone who made the National Garden Scheme day on Sunday 6th September such a success. It really was a team effort and so enjoyable. Even the weather came up trumps.

We made just over £1400, half of which has gone to the NGS charities and the other half to FHS. Also a big thank you to Judy Woollett who brought everything together. We won the Ted Green Cup for this event and also the cup for the best large allotment in Barnet.
Nethercourt Avenue Site won a cup for second prize in the small allotment category. The presentation is on 19th October - see Events for details.

Seed Catalogues now available

Suttons' Seed catalogues and Kings Seeds catalogues are available in the green room on Gordon Road Site. See inside for details.

New Greenhouse for Brent Way

Brent Way Allotmenters were upset earlier this year to discover that their trusty old greenhouse had blown over in the wind and was completely out of shape. Efforts were made to revive it but it was beyond repair. The General Committee agreed to replace it much to the delight of Elain Wright, secretary of the Brent Way Allotments.

The new greenhouse at Brent Way Allotments

They spent a good deal of time researching greenhouses and chose a slightly bigger and hopefully stronger model with toughened glass. It has taken a while to assemble but Colin Wright and several helpers have done a magnificent job. They prepared a solid base and then slowly but surely put together the metal structure before putting in the glass.

“We can’t wait to use it and look forward to heat-loving crops next year.” exclaimed Elain.

Children’s Competition

Are you interested in running the Children’s Competition for the NGS Open Day next year? We need a parent who could encourage children and families to take part and develop this aspect of our Open Day. We are keen to involve more children in the joys of allotments. Please contact Judy Woollett on 020 8346 5107 who will be able to explain what has happened so far and what might be interesting for the future.

RHS warns of box tree caterpillars

The RHS is warning of a relatively new insect to Britain. Box tree caterpillars are the larvae of a moth that feeds only on box (buxus) plants. It is native to East Asia and it became established in Europe in 2007. By the end of 2014 the moth had become established in parts of London and the surrounding counties; in many cases the caterpillars had caused severe defoliation indicating that the moth is likely to become a serious problem. Similar looking caterpillars which are found on brassica are usually from large white cabbage butterflies.

Symptoms

Gardeners are likely to become aware of box tree caterpillars when they find webbing and caterpillars on box plants.

- The pale yellow, flattish eggs are laid sheet-like, overlapping each other on the underside of box leaves
- Newly hatched caterpillars are greenish-yellow, with black heads. Older caterpillars reach up to 4cms in length and have a greenish-yellow body with thick black and thin white stripes along the length of the body
- The pupae are concealed in a cocoon of white webbing spun among leaves and twigs
- The caterpillars eat box leaves and produce webbing over their feeding area. Plants may show patches of dieback which may be especially apparent on trimmed plants. This is not to be confused with dieback caused by the disease known as box blight

The RHS wants gardeners finding this moth in their garden to let them know by sending images to advisory\_entomology@rhs.org.uk

Discount on Suttons' Seeds Catherine Schmitt wants your orders

Suttons' Seed Catalogues have arrived and I have left copies in the Green Room at Gordon Road and at Nethercourt Avenue. As last year FHS members will earn a discount of 50% on seeds and 15% on all other items. You will pay a carriage charge of £1.99 for packets of seeds or £4.99 if your order includes heavier items such as garden equipment. Your order will be delivered direct to your address and if you include your email address or mobile phone number you will be notified of delivery if your package weighs more than 2 kg.

There are two ways of ordering. You can send me your order on the form provided NO LATER THAN 30 NOVEMBER in which case you will pay no money at the time of ordering and I will let you know what you owe in January when I receive the invoices. The seeds should arrive in December. Alternatively you can order by post, phone or online (www.suttons.co.uk) quoting our unique offer code. Ask me for it. But in this case you must pay at the time of ordering.

Wishing you good gardening in 2016

New Fencing for Gordon Road Allotments

The FHS and Gordon Road Committees have decided to improve the chestnut paling fencing which runs at the Dollis Brook end of the allotment site. There have been an increasing number of break-ins and thefts at the Gordon Road site and the chestnut paling is clearly a weak spot where people can enter easily as it is hidden from the road.

We will need a working party in October and November to clear the area next to the fence so that the new fencing can be put in without delay. Please talk to June or Philip or any of the Allotment Committee.

Gordon the allotment cat is a softie and cannot be relied upon to repel intruders. He is a favourite amongst plot holders and is fed by many of them. He feels quite at home with us.
